

Work better together on the go

Collaboration and mobility tools are essential in today's digital workplace.

Achieve more together, from anywhere

The rise of mobile technology, cloud computing and remote working makes effective collaboration and mobility tools essential in today's modern workplace. Microsoft offers a wide range of accessories that empower your employees to get more done together on the go.

Make meetings more effective with a Microsoft® Wireless Display Adapter to display presentations easily and quickly from your laptop to any screen.

Reduce distractions and make conversations more productive with high-quality headsets and noise-cancelling microphones.

Connect with your teams and customers from anywhere with the LifeCam Studio for Business Webcam.

Get work done on the go with portable mice that can easily fit into your pocket or bag.

With Microsoft accessories you get:

- The best of Windows built in, with a customizable Windows button and touch tab that put features like Cortana, OneNote and virtual desktops just a click away
- Long battery life and easy integration with your existing apps, PCs, monitors and printers, including a wide variety of Windows-compatible devices
- Accessories built to work best with Windows because they're designed by the people who created it
